

I am opposed to the challenge made by the Consumer Banking Association to weaken the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. This will allow unwanted calls made to my house and disrupt my ever shortening family time together.